

EXPRESSIONS

- ▶ Contemporary artistic finishes that make a style statement in commercial facilities.

Expressions Technical Profile

Flowcrete's Expressions flooring range offers large-scale commercial and retail clients a unique, one-of-a-kind floor finish that has been designed for high-traffic, high-performance spaces looking to impress underfoot.

The Expressions range evokes cosmopolitan sophistication and artistic expression to create floors that are consistently inconsistent but which artfully interplay a raw industrial aesthetic with a soft and welcoming feel.

The resin systems, based on polyurethane and polyurea technology, are available in a variety of subtle colour ways and with a choice of decorative effects to create a real talking point at ground-level.

Bring an artistic aesthetic into your commercial setting and express your brand personality with Flowcrete's Expressions range.

Application Suitability

Combining the highest artistic design finish with the highest performance properties, the Expressions range is the ideal flooring solution for commercial brands...
